

x. National Kalajar Control Programme : This programme has been implemented in the year 1991-92. This is a centrally sponsored programme in which the expenditure is borne by the central and state Government on fifty-fifty-basis. The Central Government provides medicine in its share. Under this programme, laboratories have been established in sadar or district hospitals to prove the presence of Kalajar disease. In the laboratories above, bone marrow tests are held.