

Centre of Agriculture Science, Nehru Yuva Kundra, Khadi Gramodyog Parishad, Rural Development Institute, Community Development Training Centres, and popular voluntary institutions. The training can also be organised in the house of a person having expertise. The selection of the place of training is made by DRDA. Training is imparted only for a period of six months.

The syllabus for the training programme is prepared by DRDA. In the training programme, discussions are held on account keeping, knowledge of market, art of selling goods in the market, price determination, and means to get loan from the banks.

There is provision for paying stipend to the training of the TRYSEM. Master craftsman and the organizers of the training programme are also paid honorarium for their services. Each trainee receives a toolbox of value Rs. 800/- during the period of training programme. The rate of stipend to trainees is as follows.

Sl. No.	Place of Training	Amount of stipend/allowance
1.	Training under master craftsman	Maximum Rs. 200/- P.M.
2.	I.T.I., Poly-technique, Community Development Training Centre, Engineering College, Tool room, Technology Park, National & State Level Training Institute.	Maximum Rs. 350/- P.M.
3.	Other registered & accepted institutes	Maximum Rs. 350/- P.M.
4.	Allowance to trainee for raw material	Maximum Rs. 75/- P.M.
5.	Allowances for tool box	Rs. 800/- to 2000/- per trainee
6.	Allowance to Rural Architect	Rs. 30 to 45 per day.

The rate of honorarium to master craftsman and other trainers is as follows :

Sl. No.	Trainer	Honourium
1.	Master Craftsman	Maximum Rs. 100 per trainee per month
2.	Reward to Master Craftsman	Rs. 50 per trainee per month.
3.	Institution like I.T.I., Poly-	Rs. 300 per trainee per month.

technique Engineering College,
National & State level institute.

4. Other registered institute

Rs. 200 per trainee per month.

Crafts prepared during the training period are sold in the market. The money earned so is distributed among the trainees and institute in the ratio of 50:50.