ABOUT

NUSRL

The National University of Study and Research in Law (NUSRL), Ranchi, was established in 2010 by Act No. 4 of the Jharkhand State Legislative Assembly. It was subsequently recognized by the University Grants Commission (UGC) in September 2011 under sections 22 and 12B of the UGC Act of 1956, as well as by the Bar Council of India (BCI) in 2018. NUSRL Ranchi is known for its commitment to holistic development and has a stellar reputation shaped by the remarkable achievements of its students across diverse spheres including academia, sports, culture, and literature. With modest beginnings, the university aims to compete with global academic standards through carefully crafted teaching-learning methodologies. NUSRL endeavors to share global opportunities in law and legal disciplines, fostering a culture of innovation and leadership, positioning itself at the forefront of legal education innovation and excellence in the country.

CHRSS

The Centre for Human Rights and Subaltern Studies (CHRSS), established in March 2019 under the guidance of Vice Chancellor (I/C) Mr. Gautam Choudhary, focuses on protecting universal, inherent, and inalienable human rights. Its mission is to promote social justice, engaging in discourse, seminars, and legal aid to make a positive impact. The center's initiatives include a free food program for the needy, a human rights journal, and various awareness programs and events.
