Subject: Regarding Swachhta Hi Seva Campaign.

Sir.

Govt of India is celebrating the "Swachhta Hi Seva Campaign" from 17th September till 2nd October 2024. Hon'ble Chancellor has directed that all Universities shall organise suitable programs during this period and intimate the proposed program schedule within the next Two days to this office.

Hon'ble Governor would like to participate in the programmes organized by the Universities as per schedule. The program can organized at the University campus as well as in some other locations of the city.

Ranchi University shall organise a programme on 2nd October as the culmination of the campaign in addition to other programmes. The letter from the Government of India is enclosed.

With Regards.

Yours Sincerely,

(Nitin Madan Kulkarni)
Principal Secretary to Governor

Summary of the Programmes

With reference to letter no. 1134/R.B issued by the office of the Principal Secretary to Governor, the NSS Unit of Dr. Shyama Prasad Mukherjee University, Ranchi organized various programs under the aegis of the “Swachhata Hi Seva” campaign that was observed from 17th September- 2nd October 2024 to pay homage to the Father of Nation, Mahatma Gandhi on his 155th birth anniversary which is being celebrated throughout the country. The NSS volunteers took out a Swachhata Rally on 1st October 2024 to spread the message of cleanliness in and around the University campus. Approximately 100 volunteers participated in the rally which was flagged off by Dr. Namita Singh, Registrar, DSPMU, Ranchi, and NSSPO, Dr. Abhay Krishna Singh and Dr. Shama Sonali also took part in the rally.

In extension to the program, the 155th Birth Anniversary and International Non-Violence Day was celebrated in the University on 2nd October 2024 from 11.30 AM onwards in the Administrative Block by the NSS and NCC Unit of DSPMU, Ranchi. On the auspicious occasion, the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Tapan Kumar Shandilya paid floral homage to the Mahatma and Shri Lal Bahadur Shastri. Dr. Abha Jha, Head, University Department of Philosophy, Dr. G.C. Baskey, In charge, NCC, Dr. Abhay Krishna Singh and Dr. Shama Sonali, NSSPO were also present. A seminar was also organized from 12.30 PM in the Gandhi sabhagar of the University where the various aspects of Gandhian Philosophy and its relevance were discussed by the faculty and the students. It was an interactive session that the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor chaired. The Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, while addressing the students emphasized the founding principles of Gandhiji's teachings and how those can be applied in our daily lives. He stated that the Mahatma's philosophy of simple living and high thinking is still relevant as it will help today's world in sustainable development which is the need of the hour. His concept of satya and ahimsa can usher in an era of peace and goodwill in a war-torn world.

Students of various Departments also expressed their views on Gandhi and his teachings. The youth can play an important role in spreading the messages of truth, non-violence and passive resistance and that was the main motive of the seminar. Vote of thanks was delivered by NSS Programme Officer, Dr. Abhay Krishna Singh and the seminar was conducted by Dr. Shama Sonali.
