It's more than just a contest; it's a vibrant culture that brings people from diverse backgrounds and cultures together, shattering physical and cultural boundaries. At TCS, we believe that programming is a thrilling adventure, and that's why we created CodeVita!

Started in 2012 in India, this coding extravaganza aimed to showcase the countless applications of coding while identifying brilliant programming talent. The overwhelming response from the first two domestic seasons fueled our ambition, and in 2014, we proudly went global. The inaugural global edition featured 6 teams in the finals, proving that CodeVita had become a truly global phenomenon.
